

Build Your English for HD Studies

In this workshop, you will create an English learning language plan to prepare for further studies. The workshop will introduce online learning resources as well as fun and interesting ways to strengthen reading, writing, listening and speaking skills. This workshop is especially designed for students who want to independently improve their English skills.

Upon completing the course, students should be able to:

- Articulate their personal English language goals
- Use and access various English learning resources
- Create an English language learning plan to prepare for further studies

Instructor	Date	Time	Venue
Florence Li	29/3/2017	13:30-15:00	TKO 101